

STROLLING VENDOR INFORMATION
Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds, Quincy, CA
July 1 – 4, 2010

email: vending@highsierramusic.com

Greetings from High Sierra!

There is never a better time to sport your best than July... so get together all your artistic finery and bring it on over to our neck of the woods. High Sierra has been attracting lots of hand-crafted wares in the past few years. We will continue to blend the world beat with the down home this year, and create an artisan alley that represents the creativity of as many of the patrons and artists as we can. People get ready! As always, I would like to encourage all of you to send us any comments/suggestions that you think would help make your festival experience a better one.

Please complete and return vendor applications no later than March 19th 2010. You will be notified of your acceptance by April 2nd. Your roaming fees will be due in full by May 14th. Due to the high number of applications we receive, if you do not return your roaming fees by May 14th, you will not be accepted.

Check out our website: www.highsierramusic.com for the most current lineup.

Fees: $225

Passes: Tickets to the festival must be purchased at regular ticket prices through our ticket office, so buy tickets early for the best prices.

Electricity: None. Bring lanterns!

Camping & parking: Camping in general camping area. You will be allowed one vehicle pass. All other vehicles must park in the parking lot adjacent to the Fairgrounds.

The scene: You will be a roaming vendor on the festival grounds.

Other info: Absolutely NO PETS!!!

Application Deadline: March 19th, 2010

Absolutely no paraphernalia of any kind permitted for sale. (Glass bowls, water pipes, etc.)

Any paraphernalia for sale will be confiscated, and your vending privileges will be forfeited.
